“I’m a single mom with two teenage boys and I wanted to find a school that would allow me to still be a mom and pursue my Master’s. CUI has allowed me to do both. The professors at Concordia are great and I have grown so much as a teacher because of the program.”

Zulema Gandy, Curriculum and Instruction

A Community of Learners

At Concordia University Irvine, you will learn from experienced Christian faculty who are accessible, no matter the format of your program. Additionally, you will complete your program in a cohort, so you will make valuable connections with fellow educators who share like-minded goals. Ryan Satterfield, a graduate of our M.A. in Education: Educational Administration, says it best: “CUI was the perfect program for my family/work/school life balance. All of my instructors were supportive, and their experiences as educational leaders were helpful in paving the way for me as an educational leader.”

Teacher Credential Program

Gain new skills quickly through our teaching credential program, available in flexible formats, with blended evening classes, and courses that can be completed in seven weeks. We offer programs in four areas: single subject, multiple subject, special education, and dual credential.

A Notable Reputation

We have successfully prepared students for lives of learning, service, and leadership through Lutheran education for nearly 50 years. Our graduates continue on to award-winning careers in education and become inspirational leaders who all parents would want teaching their children. Centered by a Christian worldview, our commitment to service inspires our graduates to make a difference in their students' lives and is part of the reason Concordia University Irvine has an excellent reputation in the academic community.

Advanced Graduate Certificate Program

Increase your earning potential and career opportunities with an advanced graduate certificate. We offer certificates in Educational Administration, Organizational Change, and Special Education.

“CUI’s Master’s program was an outstanding fit for my professional life. The flexible schedule and knowledgeable instructors made the experience worthwhile as a means for administrative preparation. I would highly recommend the program to educational leaders interested in pursuing a leadership role on their campus.”

Matthew J. Bean, Educational Administration
